OUR TOWN

A vote for Dan Moody is a vote for Earle Mayfield, according to T. W. Davidson, former candidate for governor who is now stumping the state for Lynch Davidson. This conclusion is reached in the estimate of political conditions as a result of the statement made by the former leiutenant governor in a speech at Giddings last week in which he said Moody and Mayfield had reached an understanding whereby Mayfield is to lead the Kluxers to the Moody camp and that Moody is to deliver his strength to Mayfield in the senatorial contest in 1928. Having seen no denial of this assertion, observing democrats are crediting Mr. Davidson with having given out a fact that carries with it a bit of interesting information.

It follows as reasonable that Mayfield as well as Moody would be interested in a political arrangement of this kind because Jim Ferguson is sure to be in the senatorial contest against Mayfield who was elected by the Klan against Ferguson in 1922. Moody can not succeed without the Klan vote and Mayfield cannot succeed without the Moody support because the klan, through its Imperial Wizard has declared against Mayfield because he voted for American adhesion to the world court. If the Imperial Wizard is longer able to read and interpret the political mind of his subjects the junior senator from Texas is facing serious consequences if he attempts a campaign. The Wizard said that the Klan is not in politics but will be in the field in 1928 to oppose any man for office who is in favor of "foreign entangling alliances" including the world court and the league of nations. Mayfield is for the league and voted for participation in the world court.

It is interesting. Well founded political observations have it that Colquitt will expect Moody to support him in the senatorial fight in 1928. The former governor is now publishing a free newspaper to attack the Fergusons. Moody will no doubt find himself in a position of extreme diffi- Ellis when he comes to choose be- Walston two. Dan Moody is unqualifiedly against these things and says so because he says he is opposed to everything that Ferguson stands for.

COTTON FLEA EXTERMINATED ON FARM WITH FLOWERS OF SULPHUR

A remarkable test with flowers of sulphur as a solution to kill the cotton flea has just been conducted by A. F. Mitchell, county engineer, on one of his farms in Milam County. This test has proven that the cotton flea can be killed with this simple method.

Mr. Mitchell, using 18 pounds of flowers of sulphur to the acre, made a thorough test on a plot of 5 acres of late cotton. In a surprisingly short time the stalks on the 5 acres were examined and found to average 32 squares and boles to the stalk. An adjoining patch of cotton which was not sprinkled with sulphur has been found to average no more than 3 squares and boles to the stalk.

This information will be a great aid to Milam County farmers as the test is actual.

Latest improvements in various Frigidaire electric refrigeration models will be explained and full details of the company's $20,000,000 expansion program will be given at this conference.

"We find the growing popularity of electric refrigeration is caused by the fact that it gives a new way of doing an old thing better," Mr. Keith said today. "With a Frigidaire in the house there are no inconveniences such as waiting for an outside city supply, no troublesome odors and no foods spoiled by inadequate refrigeration."

CHAMBERS SPEAKS FOR MRS. FERGUSON HERE

GAUSE AND YARRELTON PEOPLE HEAR ADMINISTRATION DEFENDED

In two addresses delivered last week one at Gause and the other at Yarrelton W. W. Chambers was cheered by hundreds of voters when he defended the Ferguson administration.

The speech at Yarrelton was delivered on Friday night to a good crowd and on Saturday afternoon Mr. Chambers went to Gause for his first speech of the campaign in that section of the County.

At both places Mr. Chambers defended the Ferguson administration and placed responsibility for the Moody campaign on the klan which he says is backing the attorney general.

People who are asking the people to vote for Moody do not tell the facts, he said, when they talk about Ferguson increasing the cost of government for they cite several departments of the government where increases were made but do not show where expenses were cut. "Anyone who says the Ferguso nadministration has not saved the people nearly $11,000,000 in the tax funds is either ignorant of the facts or is willingfully mistating the facts," said Mr. Chambers.

Mr. Chambers is scheduled to speak in Minerva on Friday night, July 16. He will make other speeches in the county for the Ferguson ticket.

WEEB WILL SPEAK FOR LYNCH DAVIDSON

Paul Webb, City Attorney, will speak at Gause on Saturday afternoon in the interest of the candidacy of Lynch Davidson for governor of Texas, being invited there to divide time with O. L. Kidd and a speaker to be provided for the Ferguson supporters.

Mr. Webb as well as other Davidson supporters declare the Houston candidate will double his vote in this county.

KIDD, HENDERSON AND GILLIS ACTIVE ON STUMP FOR THEIR CANDIDATE

T. S. Henderson will speak at Buckholts on Saturday and O. L. Fidd will speak in Gause on Saturday while W. G. Gillis will speak in Milano Saturday. Mr. Kidd is scheduled for an address at Fulcher's Bluff near San Gabriel on Thursday or Friday.

It is expected that the Moody campaign committee will conduct an active campaign in the county next week to conclude the campaign.

Cullen F. Thomas is scheduled to speak at the city park on Thursday night, July 22 to close the campaign here for the Moody forces.

Organization Believed Dissolved is Found Active Again

The Fiery Cross was burning over the Klan Hall in Gause on Thursday night, July 8 as Klansmen gathered there for a meeting, it was said here by a prominent Gause citizen Monday.

Residents of that city were somewhat surprised at the appearance again on the emblem of the klan as it had been presumed the lodge there had ceased to meet as the Lodges in Cameron and Rockdale have ceased to meet in the buildings formerly occupied by them.

Following the school trustee election there in 1925 when it was shown in court brought by Miss Hazel Thomas that the Klan was interested in the election and H. H. Gaston entered a plea of guilty to tampering with the ballots, the Klan did not meet at the accustomed place for a long period, according to the Gause citizen.

The public impression, it is said, has been that the three Klans in Milam County, one at Cameron and one each at Gause and Rockdale, have ceased their activities as formerly known. So far as is known no Klan meetings have been held in Cameron for more than a year, and the fact that the Gause Klan has again lighted up its cross gives credence to the report that the klan has resumed operation.

T. W. DAVIDSON SPEAKS FOR LYNCH DAVIDSON

He did not reiterate his statements made at Giddings that Earle Mayfield was secretly delivering the klan vote to Moody but gave considerable time to criticising Ferguson .Whit received 1500 votes in Milam County in the first primary in 1924 being supported by Mr. Henderson and others who spoke for him.

W. A. Morrison and family left Cameron Friday morning for Grand Canyon, Arizona, to spend several weeks there for Mr. Morrison's health. He has developed a throat ailment and his physician has advised him to go to Grand Canyon for his health.

Before leaving Mr. Morrison instructed that The Herald should be forwarded to his address there. He wants to keep in touch with the development in the campaign in Milam as well as get the news from his home town.

The many friends of Mr. Morrison and family will be grieved to learn of the ailment suffered by Mr. Morrison and trust he may speedily recover in the altitudes of the west. He says he will be back in Cameron for the run off primary election. He is supporting Mrs. Ferguson for re-election.

MILAM COUNTY FARM FAMED FOR MILES AROUND FOR THE LUSCIOUS BERRIES IT GROWS

By David J. Morris

The telephone rang in a small town home—

A receiver clicked on the line—"Hello."

"Hello, how are you today, Mrs. Smith?"

"Oh, just all right, thank you. We were just getting ready to start for the Farmers."

"My lands woman, why didn't you let me know sooner that you were going? Will you bring me back some?"

Now every one who knows the Farmers, know that "some" means some of the Farmers famous dewberries

The Farmers are farmers. They run a dewberry farm a few miles southwest of Davilla, Milam County. They have been in the berry business for over twelve years and have made a great success of it. When Mr. Farmer first began berry farming he was a nurseryman in Rockdale, moving a few years ago to his present location. And though raising berries principally he also has 40 acres of cotton, three of cantaloupes, four of watermelons, two of sweet potatoes, 2000 strawberry plants and corn ad cane. His berry patch covers twelve acres with an increase being considered.

It takes a lot of equipment other than regular farming tools to run a berry farm. There must be a picking or packing house where the pickers may rest and the baskets of berries set out of the sun for measuring. There must be many baskets, large and small, to pick in and pack in for shipment. There must be scales, or at least Mr. Farmer uses scales, the very best he could find for the purpose, costing him $150.

Many sell berries by the gallon measure, He sells by the gallon but by weight instead of measure and filling it heaping full of berries several times and weighing he found a gallon of berries to weigh six pounds.

"I do not have to carry my berries to town to sell them because the people come here from miles and miles around and buy all I have," Mr. Farmer, said. "They either buy berries already picked, or pick them on the share. The person picking gets one-third more for his berries. This plan works out nicely for all concerned. I like to be fair to my customers because I believe it pays. I do not permit picking of berries on Sunday."

"Berries are usually a 100 per cent crop as there are no insects that bother them. Unless a big storm or rain comes and keeps the pickers out of the field I usually get every berry grown. Berry vines are well covered with thorns and pickers soon learn that the points of these stickers all run in one direction and they can run their hands about the vines without getting stuck." May and June are the berry months.

"Dewberries and blackberries grow well in sandy soil. My sandy clay soil makes fine berries."

Dewberry vines are planted in rows about five or six feet apart. They are checked so that plows can run in either direction and keep the weeds and grass out of the vines and middles, making it easy to pick them. Berries of the largest size and best quality are grown on the vines near the ground. It takes careful search to locate these, There isn't any better stain for the fingers than dewberries. There isn't anything else growing in the sand that gets as much grit, sugar—the folks down here call it, than dew and blackberries. However this is easy to wash out.

The berry business in Texas has grown much during the past few years. Every year there is a larger and a longer string of cars winding their way along the highways and byways to the berry farms. Those farmers who do not sell all of their berries direct from the field find that they have a ready market for the surplus in the towns and cities. But berries are not a get-rich-quick crop. It costs something to put out, gather, pack, sell and ship them. But when berrie scan be raised they are pretty sure of a good yield and the chances of getting them gathered and of selling for a good price are good.—Houston Chronicle.

WHY GOVERNMENT PRICE FIXING WON'T WORK

One of the most persistent fallacies is government price-fixing on competitive commodities. There is already government price-fixing in commodities and services where competition plays no part in price determination. These are railway transportation, electricity, gas, telephone and telegraph, and so on. Here government price-fixing is solely to protect the consumer. There are two fatal objections to government price-fixing for agricultural products, which represent the most competitive business in the world. These are, first, that it will not work; second, that it is always done for the consumer as against the producer.

Government price-fixing for agricultural products would work if at the same time the government regulated wages, profits, middlemen's margins, the production of all commodities and the rationing of all consumers. In short, if the population were enlisted in one vast army, directed and rationed, price-fixing would work, but otherwise not. If the price is fixed on the wheat the farmer sells, then he cannot keep on producing wheat if wages or the cost of harvesting machinery rise, or if the cost of other material he buys rises. So the next step would be the fixation of other prices, and yet other prices.

The United States government fixed the price of wheat but once in our history, and then it was to benefit consumers, not producers. The government might, in an emergency, fix some agricultural prices for the purpose of elevating such prices. Such action would inevitably and speedily lead to outcry from city consumers and a consequent reversal of policy. Indeed, the consumers, not the producers, are most likely to demand and secure food price regulation by government authorities. The farmer, therefore, who favors any form of governmental price-fixing is working against his own interests. He is putting his head into a noose.—James E. Boyle, Professor of Rural Economics, Cornell University, in the Banker-Farmer.

STRAIGHT TALKS WITH AUNT EMMY

On Fifteen Per Cent Bonds

Mrs. Norris beamed as she greeted Aunt Emmy and exclaimed, "Now I know all my financial worries are over! I wanted to tell you right away —"

"What have you bought this time?" Aunt Emmy demanded suspiciously.

"Well, I haven't paid the money over yet, but I have found the loveliest investment where my money will be perfectly safe and will earn a nice income for me right away," Mrs. Norris said. "I'm going to buy bonds, good safe bonds, that will pay me fifteen per cent interest—"

"Wait a minute, you'll have to go some, Maud Norris, to tell me about 'good safe bonds' that pay fifteen per cent!" Aunt Emmy broke in.

"They are safe,—the man said so and this booklet says so too!"

"Do you know what a bond is?' asked Aunt Emmy.

"No, but it's awfully safe. I'm sure of that," Mrs. Norris said. "Everybody knows that bonds are safe—"

"My dear, some bonds are safe and some are not. When you buy a bond you simply lend your money to the company putting out the bonds. Bond issues are secured generally by the company mortgaging or pledging some of its property. In other words, it offers a certain asset as security that it will return your money to you on the date the bond matures. It agrees to pay you a certain sum each year for the use of your money, usually something between five and eight per cent. No company can afford to pay too much for its money—and as to fifteen per cent bonds—why it would be very unusual for a company to be able to earn enough to enable it to pay fifteen per cent for the privilege of using other people's money,—moreover, if it is good enough to borrow money at all it can borrow it more cheaply than that!"

"Oh dear!" wailed Mrs. Norris, "then a bond isn't a good safe investment—"

"Don't jump at conclusions so fast!" said Aunt Emmy. "I did not say that. A bond is as safe as a church if the company that issues it is financially sound, has a high credit rating and is making money. Before you buy bonds assure yourself that the company behind them is above reproach."

"But the man who told me about these fifteen per cent bonds was so earnest—I felt sure I could believe him."

"Don't turn over any money to him until you have some advice on the bonds from your bank," admonished Aunt Emmy. "Then, if you find out that the bonds are questionable you will escape another bad investment."

Mason County, Michigan, bankers are pushing hard to replace scrub stock with pure-bred cattle. The plan as outlined by the county agent is to purchase young pure-bred sires and place them wherever a farmer is found who is willing to co-operate in the proposition. The bankers will advance the purchase price and take a note for one year without interest. The idea is to make it as easy as possible for the farmers to procure thoroughbreds.

LOCAL AGENT HELPS FARMERS KILL FLEA

15 INSECT CATCHERS TO BE USED IN FIGHT ON PEST

During the last ten days assistance has been given in the construction of fifteen insect catchers, to be used in the fight on the cotton flea.

The material used in its construction is very simple and cheap, a few two by fours, one by fours, some white and colored cloth, a pair of old wheels, something for an axle, an inch pipe will do, and something for a tongue.

This outfit can be made to cover 5 rows at a time, or it can be built on a cultivator and made to cover three rows, this is the best size to use on the smaller tracts, in either case it only requires one man to operate it and a boy can do this as well as a man, no poison of any kind is used.

These traps will catch millions of insects of all kinds both large and small, the trap is built on the principle that light will attract insects. The frame, which is about six feet high, coming to a roof shape at the top, is covered with black cloth, except for a white strip at the top. Flaps of heavy burlap dragging over the cotton cause them to fly, and when stirred they all go to the light place at the top of the trap, being unable to get out they drop back into pockets formed of cheese cloth running full length of the machine. When full or after a days run the device is driven over a sulphur smudge which kills the insects.

The people who have used the device praise it highly, and point out that a large field can be covered in a short time. As soon as the field is covered once it is planned to go over it again and again, we believe that we can catch all manner of insects faster than they can breed, and thus cut down their numbers to where they will do little or no harm. This device will be of great help in combating any insect invasion which may occur, especially leaf worm millers which are in large numbers at the present. If oil pans were placed in the traps many boll weevils would be knocked into them.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATIONS

It is not an easy thing to deal with the modern child. The kid world, to speak somewhat colloquially, has become very independent in these days, and it has a way of making its own decisions, often to its own hurt. Hence there needs to be a certain amount of co-operation from the homes. They have certain ideas that they are trying to put into the child mind, but if the children get the idea that their parents are not much interested in those aims, and are not supporting them, then the children are apt to develop an attitude of resistence.

The majority of parents can not get the best educational results for their children, unless they exert a certain amount of home pressure on their children tending to support the things the schools are trying to do. In order to co-operate effectively along such lines, they need more knowledge of modern school methods and aims than they have now.

And at the same time, teachers can learn a good deal from the practical viewpoint and experience of parents.

To bring about a closer harmony and co-operation in educational and home training, the parent-teacher associations which have been active in many communities, have been an influential force. Wherever such organizations are formed and are active and succeed in enlisting a good amount of interest, both school work and home training should gain advantageous results, and much be done to produce a finer type of young people.

Mr. and Mrs. Ham Jones of Waco were guests of her brother, Hon. W. W. Chambers and family Wednesday.

WHAT MOODY IS OPPOSING

Dan Moody, candidate for governor has made this statement: "I am opposed to Fergusonism and all that Fergusonism stands for." He never has qualified or mystified that statement and on the theory that a candidate so impregnated with honesty means what he says it is pertinent to give a statement of the Fergusonism that Moody opposes. Here are same of the items upon which his opposition is launched.

The semi-monthly pay day.

Free textbooks for Texas school children.

The land tenant law which curbs greedy landlords.

Taking the insane and decrepit unfortunates out of filthy jails and placing them in comfortable quarters.

Putting the penitentiary system upon a cash basis with inherited debts paid.

Tearing masks and hoods from the Ku Klux Klan and stopping river bottom tar and feather parties.

The search and seizure law which protects the home against marauding hi-jackers posing as officers of the law.

Adequate appropriations for schools, both rural schools and colleges of higher education.

Cessation of lynchings in Texas.

A treasury overflowing with cash.

Law enforcement for rich and poor alike.

Showing that mercy which preachers plead for on Sunday and denounce every week day.

Dan Moody is unqualifiedly against these things and says so because he says he is opposed to Fergusonism and everything that Ferguson stands for.—Adv.

PLEASING HOSPITALITY

Miss Lilla Bassett of Dallas, guest of her sister, Mrs. John Watson, was complimented Wednesday with porch parties in the morning and afternoon of delightful appointment given at the home of the hostess. Forming an inviting setting for the summertime hospitalities was the vine embowered porch with hanging baskets, and festoons of greenery. Wall baskets and fern boxes were filled with wild heliotrope with trailing foliage. In this vine clad bower the pastel shaded frocks of the five tables of players at the lavender and green covered game tables furnished a charming color note. Bridge was the favored diversion of the morning and 42 of the afternoon. The game markers were lavender and green Japanese maidens with fans and score cards were purple wisteria designs. Grape punch was served during the games at the conclusion of the series of the morning Mrs. George Simonds was awarded lavender bath salts for highscore and in the afternoon Mrs. Charles McDermott was awarded a hand painted violet powder holder as a trophy of skill. Brick cream and grape ice were served with individual iced cake squares on bamboo table trays centered with sprays of perennial pholx. Misses Gladys and Maidie Watson assisted with hostess duties. Miss Lilla Bassett, the honoree, was presented a beautiful brass jardiniere of Canterbury bells.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

KLAN LINEUP FOR MOODY CHARGED

Senator Mayfield Said by Whit Davidson Trying to Swing Kluxers.

Giddings, Tex., July 9.—United States Senator Earle B. Mayfield is using his influence to win Ku Klux Klan support for Dan Moody in the present gubernatorial campaign, with the understanding that Mayfield, two years hence, will have the help of Moody in his candidacy for re-election to the Senate, T. W. (Whit) Davidson of Marshall said in his address here Thursday night in behalf of the candidacy of Lynch Davidson of Houston.

He charged that this lineup originated last summer when Senator Mayfield "covertly campaigned Texas for Dan Moody."

"Ferguson has cunningly used every art to drive the Ku Klux to Moody's support, and the Ku Klux leaders have been decoyed into Jim's trap," Davidson said. "With a strong suspicion existing in the minds of the great body of Texans, the Ku Klux are whirling around Dan, and with Ferguson and Moody in a run-off, Ferguson could stage the only possible chance he has to win the election, by arousing the passion and hatred that only this issue could stir, and by it beat Dan for Governor in the primary.

"When the elect... you will find tha... mont and Gree... other centers ... Klux, will g...ldre... his vote.

Warns People

"If the Klan leaders who propose to drive the great body of deluded Ku Klux into Moody's camp in 1926, as they did for Mayfield in 1922 and for Robertson in 1924, succeed, the strife and bitterness of those other campaigns will be repeated and accelerated. I warn the people of Texas against this maelstrom of woe, and call upon all Ku Klux members who expect no personal gain nor political preference to go to the polls unallied and vote their individual preferences, which will mean Davidson's nomination and emphasize the doctrine of better government, cleaner politics and higher ideals in government that they so loudly profess."

Davidson was introduced by Judge R. W. Mayfield who said Lynch Davidson's election would pracate the acrimony and feudalism now at the boiling point in political and official life at Austin.

Davidson spoke Friday at Caldwell and Cameron. He has made 13 speeches in the past week for the Houston candidate, who was his opponent in the gubernatorial campaign two years ago.

Take away from Dan Moody the vote of the Klan and all those who bolted the ticket in 1924 and it would be a pony race between the youth from Williamson county and Zim.

NERVES ALL UNSTRUNG?

Cameron Folks Should Find the Cause And Correct It

Are you all worn out? Feel tired, nervous, half-sick? Do you have a constant backache; sharp twings of pain, too, with dizzy spells and annoying urinary disorders? Then there's cause for worry and more cause to give your weakened kidneys prompt help. Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys.

Cameron folks recommend Doan's for suc htroubles.

Mrs. A. W. Esslinger, North Travis Ave., Cameron, says: "I had a bearing down pain across my kidneys and at times when I bent over, sharp, catches took me across the small of my back and it wasn't a bit easy to straighten. I felt tired and nervous and my kidneys were weak and acted too freely. I began using Doan's Pills from Schiller Drug Store. One box drove the trouble away."

If Back Hurts Begin on Salts

Flush your Kidneys occasionally if you eat too much meat.

No man or woman who eats lots of meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Too much meat may form uric acid, which clogs the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood; then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to help neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus often ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink, which everyone can take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby often preventing serious kidney complications.

Dropping Engine To Chassis

A BUICK valve-in-head engine is being added to the chassis in the picture above. Previous to this step in assembly, the chassis started as a bare frame. Body brackets and running board brackets were riveted on, axles, torque tube, cantilever springs, etc. were fastened in place by automatic tools, as the chassis moved slowly forward along the assembly line on an endless conveyor.

The engine is fastened to the frame at three points. This type of suspension, with the single, automatically lubricated universal joint, takes up stresses and torsional twists and delivers the power directly to the rear wheels. Here the torque tube comes into play, taking the strain of driving away from the rear springs so that the engine is in effect pulling the car along.

As the car moves forward after receiving the engine, other important parts are added. The wheels are placed on the axles and the four-wheel brakes adjusted. The radiator is put into place and connected. The front fenders, mud guards and running boards are fastened to the chassis.

MAYOR CALLS ON PEOPLE TO CUT WEEDS ON LOTS

SAYS LITTLE ATTENTION PAID TO REQUEST AND CITY URGES COMPLIANCE

Mayor Davis has issued an appeal to the citizens to co-operate with the city sanitarian in cutting weeds on their property and on vacant lots owned by them.

This is a part of the clean up campaign inaugurated by the sanitarian. The following appeal by the mayor is addressed to the people:

"Last week the citizens of Cameron were asked by the City Sanitarian to see to it that the weeds on their property within the City Limits and on the sidewalks adjoining such property were cut this week. This request has received little attention from our citizenship.

"In view of the fact that the City Council is earnestly trying to make Cameron an ideal city in which to live, it is hereby seriously requested that the weeds within the city limits be cut at the earliest possible date.

JUDD G. DAVIS, Mayor.

HENRY ROSS TO SUPERVISE THE MARKETING AND HARVESTING OF MELONS

At a meeting of the Thorndale Watermelon Growers Association held at Fairview last Friday night the Association elected Prof. Henry Ross as supervisor and manager of the harvesting, grading and marketing of the melons produced by the association. He, of course, will be assisted in the work of weighing, etc. by the directors of the association and they expect to begin shipping about the end of the present month. The association has about 65 acres in melons this year and they feel very much encouraged by the present outlook for some splendid melons. The crop is late but the vines are fruiting splendidly.—Thorndale Champion.

Do You Remember?

There was a time, in the memory of many of us, when a good citizen was a man who kept money on hand to loan his neighbors.

That was before the age of banking.

Today, the good citizen puts every surplus dollar in his bank, thereby making it available to others through loans from their banking institutions.

It is a part of good, modern citizenship to put money on bank deposit.

CANNOT BEAT MA FOR SECOND TERM SAYS JIM; NEVER HAS HAS BEEN DONE HE DECLARES

From Marshall I went to Jefferson in Marion county and spent Sunday night. While there I saw old Dave Culberson's home where Charlie was raised. As I stood under the trees where Charlie used to play as a boy I could not but help remember how outspoken Jim Hogg was for a second term of Governor Ross and how outspoken Charlie Culberson was for a second term for Governor Hogg and how ridiculous it would have been for anybody to have tried to beat either Ross, Hogg or Culberson for a second term as governor. All of which shows how foolish it is for Dan Moody or any of his idiotic cohorts to think that Dan Moody is going to beat anybody for a second term. It never has been done mainly because it can't be done.

On Monday I went to Linden in Cass county and addressed what was said to be the largest political gathering ever assembled in Cass county. When I called attention to the fact that the staff writer of the Ft. Worth Star Telegram wrote in that paper that is now so strong for Moody that my crowd was ten thousand, I suppose I can make the same statement without being accused of political misrepresentation.

I was introduced by Judge Hardy O'Neal. Judge O'Neal is one of the old time Scotch Irish statesmen of the south. The reason why he is held in such high esteem by the people of all East Texas is because of his innate honesty and his undisputed ability. Had he lived under different conditions he likely would have been recognized as of the courage of Andrew Jackson and of the mentality of Abraham Lincoln. In my opinion he is the undiscovered statesman of Texas. There were people from ten different counties at the Linden meeting and it was distinctly a Ferguson crowd. The governor carried Cass county by 314 majority over Robertson. She will carry it this time by more than 700 majority.

On Monday night Capt. Silas Grandberry entertained me at the home of his son who lives on the old Grandberry homestead which is in the north part of Cass County. By way of surprise after supper there were 150 automobiles bearing six or seven hundred people who called to pay their respects, and among them was my old time democratic friend, Dr. A. C. Oliver, now in his 87th year. Dr. Oliver is exceedingly vigorous for his age and it appeared to me that his mind is just as clear as it was when I first met him more than twenty years ago. The doctor says that the governor is twice as strong with the farmers as I ever was and I think the doctor knows what he is talking about.

The next day, on Tuesday, I went to Clarksville and stopped for an hour in New Boston where I was met by a committee of friends composed of John W. Eddins, J. C. Tyson and W. M. Blaxham. They escorted me over town and we met hundreds of people who assured me the governor had lost none of her strength in Bowie County. There is a probable increase of ten thousand poll taxes in Bowie county this year and as the governor carried this county by six hundred the last time I am sure she will carry it by at least twelve hundred. I saw Senator Lloyd Price and he told me that the governor had lost no strength in Bowie County.

I arived at Clarksville about noon and was met by my friends, John Norris, Mr. Drury Taylor, Senator Floyd, S. B. Stanley and Ed Edwards. I had the smalest crowd at Clarksville since the speaking campaign began. The crowd was only about three thousand, but very responsive and representative. The meeting was presided over by District Judge J. R. Williams who commended the governor's administration very highly. I was introduced by Dr. Drury Taylor and his defense of the administration was cheered to the echo by the people present. The governor carried Red River County by one thousand before and it will be fifteen hundred this time. My old time pistol pocket friends, John T. Dickson, Tom Roach, R. E. Eubank and Joe Pollard came all the way to Clarksville to take me to Paris where I spoke on the public square on Tuesday night. There were easily 6 thousand people present and while a few hecklers again showed up when I discussed Dan Moody's war record the meeting was orderly and I had a cordial reception. There were more than four thousand farmers in the audience and I shook hands with more than one thousand people, including some four hundred women, at the close of my speech. The governor lost Lamar County by 1147 votes before. I am frank to say that Lamar county is one of the ten counties that Moody may carry, but it will be by a decreased majority. The town of Paris is where the vote is against the governor. In the country like ninety-nine per cent of all other places in Texas the farmers are for the Ferguson administration.

This is just another fight that has been waged in Texas many times between the silk stocking high brow corn fed aristocracy on the one side and the farming and laboring masses who produce the wealth of the country on the other. You can call it arraigning class against class if you want to but I am talking about facts. Moody can talk about all the crime of Fergusonism that he wants to, but when a farmer or a carpenter takes a look at Moody it don't take him two minutes to know that he is not of his stripe or his kind.

While at Paris I got a sad message of the death of my old friend Will Love in Houston. I immediately called by Senator Bailey and asked him if he would not fill my speaking date at Farmersville, which he gladly consented to do.

As it was then too late to catch the first train out I went to Bonham for my date on Wednesday. Judge S. F. Leslie and Hon. F. A. Dale, member of the house from Fannin county, came over to take me to Bonham. I had a crowd of about seven thousand people and while the speaking was in an iron clad building and the heat almost unbearable, the audience stayed throughout my hour and a half speech. Mr. Dale presided at the meeting and introduced Miss Goen who in turn introduced me. Miss Goen is a rural school teacher who is well known in Fannin County. She told the audience that every school teacher in Texas ought to be a friend to the Ferguson administration because Jim Ferguson and Ma Ferguson had caused more money to be spent for the cause of education than any other governors that had ever been elected by the people of Texas. Bonham is the home of Hon. W. W. Fitzwater, president of the National Farm-Labor Union. Mr. Fitzwater is outspoken for the governor and says that the farmers who vote against Mrs. Ferguson do not know what a mistake they are making against their own interest. The governor carried Fannin county by only two hundred votes over Robertson, but Earl Nunn, Judge Leslie, Mr. Fitzwater and Mr. Dale who perhaps are as well acquainted as any other men in Fannin County claim that the governor will carry Fannin county by at least one thousand majority. From the reception I received at Bonham I know they are right.

I went to Houston to pay my respects to Mrs. Love and the family in the hour of their great bereavement. Will and I were school boys together nearly forty years ago and in his going I feel that I have sustained the loss of one of the most conscientious advisers and friends that I have ever had. He had only a few months ago been appointed District Judge by the Governor, but in the short time that he served he was recognized to be one of the ablest judges that ever sat upon the bench. I shall miss him and his people have sustained a great loss.

The day before I arrived in Houston my old time friend Jules Hirsch had died after a lingering illness. He had been my friend for more than 20 years and it always looked like that the more my political enemies got after me the closer Jules Hirsch stood by me. He was one of the prominent Jews of Texas and he always stood for the right regardless of whom it suited or didn't suit. The Jewish race has suffered the loss of one of its most distinguished representatives.

I arrived back in Austin on Friday and found everything quiet. Austin has already given up the hope of electing Dan Moody and the crowd that was shouting for him three weeks ago like a pack of wolves are now as quiet as lambs and you only hear a faint bleat here and there in behalf of Dan.

Watch my statement next week. I am going to give the people an analysis of the vote by counties to show what the July primary will bring forth.

JAMES E. FERGUSON.

EXTENSION OF ROUTE NO. 2 STARTED JULY 1

The extension of Rural route No. 2 went into effect on July 1, and is now being covered by A. R. Ramseur, the regular carrier. The extension covers 19 additional miles and takes in territory heretofore partly covered by Rockdale Route 1. Commissioner McDonald, with the grader and his crew have spent some time in putting the road in condition, as well as repairing and putting up new bridges on the route. The extension of this route was through the efforts of the Thorndale Commercial club, joined by a number of patrons on the route and Carrier A. R. Ramseur. The Club was also materially assisted by Congressman Luther A. Johnson at Washington, D. C., who assisted in the negotiations with the postal authorities.—Thorndale Champion.

At a meeting of the road committee held Tuesday of this week with Mr. Thomas of Thomas & Ratliff Contracting Company being present plans were discussed and agreed upon looking to a speedy finish of the dirt work at the approaches of the new bridges on the four roads leading into and out of Thorndale. The fall season is fast approaching when the roads will be needed badly and the committee is anxious to get them in as good condition as possible by the time cotton begins to come in.—Thorndale Champion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Chambers of Oklahoma City are here to visit Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Walters.

Any amateur photographer can enter this contest. Here is an opportunity for you to win one of the finest little cameras ever made by ANSCO. Don't miss it.

This contest is to encourage picture-taking and bring out photographic talent. We know that a great many of our customers have far more picture-taking ability than they realize. We handle Ansco Cameras and Ansco Speedex Film, and make a special feature of the quality of finishing done for our customers, and to demonstrate the value and spirit of our photographic service we are putting on this contest, which is open to all amateur photographers.

Remember, thousands of the best pictures published in magazines, newspapers, rotogravure supplements, and the like, are pictures that have been taken by amateurs, and we are conducting this contest to demonstrate that the amateur photographers in this community can take as good pictures as any—and better than most. No restrictions as to when pictures were or are taken—last year, last week, or any time this month. (Reprints from favorite films can be made by our finisher at any time.) Enter as many prints as you wish.

When the contest closes at the end of the month, the prints which in your estimation could not possibly win will be eliminated, and the rest will be submitted to a committee of experts which Ansco Photoproducts, Inc., has agreed to appoint, and these experts will judge the pictures according to (1) Clearness, (2) Artistic value, and (3) Oroginality of subject, awarding prize to the picture which on this basis is judged by them the best.

STRAIGHT TALKS WITH AUNT EMMY

ON HOUSEHOLD BUDGETS

"Aunt Emmy," asked Helen, "won't you explain what is meant by a household budget? You said something the other day about budgets, but I don't seem clear in my mind about it."

"A budget is simply a plan," said Aunt Emmy. "You plan what you are going to do with your income. You divide your income systematically so that you can meet your needs. You lay aside a part of your income for rent, other parts for food, clothing, heat, light, telephone, recreation, savings and so on."

"How are you going to know how much you should spend for each thing—on rent for instance, Aunty?" asked Helen.

"Experts have studied the question carefully and have worked out budgets to suit every income. Of course, you can alter these typical budgets slightly to suit your particular needs. For example, the average budget that covers incomes of from $2,000 to $10,000 a year divides your income into six parts. Ten per cent for savings, twenty per cent for rent, twenty per cent for food, twenty per cent for what is called betterment and includes education, amusement, entertainment, books, music, sports; fifteen per cent for clothes and fifteen per cent for operating expenses.

"No matter how you change the other items you must not change the savings allowance—except to increase it. A great majority of men who reach sixty are dependent on relatives or charity. If they had saved only ten cents out of every dollar, they would not have been in that plight. There is nothing like money in the savings bank to help you through the emergencies that come in everybody's life. If everybody kept one year's income in the savings bank, much misery would be averted. If you always have enough money to see you through one year, you are pretty safe. Beyond that, it is wise to let your money accumulate until you have enough to buy some good securities. Your banker will advise you about the securities that suit your needs."

"But, Aunt Emmy, suppose you wanted to alter your budget?" inquired Helen. "How would you know how to do it? A young married couple might start on a certain budget and then, when they had children to feed and educate, they might want to change it."

"Well, my dear, if they were in doubt about their financial affairs, they could always consult their banker. That is why it is so good to establish friendly relations with a bank when you start out in life. Any banker will be glad to advise young people about making their money go farther."

WHAT THE FEDERAL RESERVE HAS DONE FOR BUSINESS

What the Federal Reserve System has done for business is summed up in these points: It has (1) given business greater confidence in the ability of the banks to care for credit needs; (2) introduced an elastic currency and eliminated money panics; (3) eliminated extreme seasonal fluctuations in rates of interest; (4) brought business safely through the war and post-war crises; (5) saved millions of dollars to business through its efficient system for check collection; (6) made the gold reserve more effective as a basis for credit extension in times of extraordinary demand; (7) aided in the financing of foreign and domestic trade by developing a discount market for acceptances; (8) provided a means for handling huge financial operations of the government without interference with business; (9) aided in the re-establishment of the gold standard abroad; (10) given us an experienced banking organization which will assist us in meeting the future exigencies of business at home and abroad with courage and confidence.

FARM LABOR UNION PRESIDENT TELLS WHY HE IS FOR MRS. FERGUSON; FARMERS SUPPORTING HER

I have been asked why I was supporting Ma Ferguson for Governor. I have always been frank with my friends, and this request for my views is a reasonable request to which I gladly reply. Although I am the national president of the Farm-Labor Union, I am not speaking in any official capacity, but only as a priviate citizen.

My life has been given to the study of the problems of the farmer, and I think I am justified in saying that I know something of the needs of the farmer. If our farming masses were to obtain all that they are entitled to under the laws of God and man, then they must study their economic and material needs, and at the same time give close attention to the trend of political thought in the minds of the public generally. While everybody ought to take interest in politics, there never was a time when it was more necessary for the farmer to see who is elected to office and be concerned about what the candidates stand for than at this very moment. With these ideas in view, I am supporting Ma Ferguson for Governor because I believe she is more in sympathy with the farming and laboring masses of our State than any other candidate. She was reared on a farm, she married a farmer and is a farmer now. All she has in the world, in a material way is wrapped up in farming operations. That being the case, it is perfectly natural that her sympathies go out to the ideas of better country schools and free textbooks for poor children and for the cause of rural education generally.

I have nothing personally against Mr. Moody. His close friends and neighbors say he is a good man; but he was reared in a city and educated as a lawyer and naturally I just don't see how he could know much about us farmers and the many problems and difficulties with which we are confronted. The study of the needs of thefarming population in Texas is the work of a lifetime and if Mr. Moody were elected he would be so busy trying to put everybody in the penitentiary as he says he is going to do that I am afraid he would not have time to give even a thought to the needs of the country people before his first term of office would be out. Then, as he is running against Ma for a second term, he would set the precedent that would let somebody beat him for a second term, and we farmers would get nothing out of the great sacrifice he has made in running for Governor.

Lynch Davidson is also a good man, but "he aint no farmer" and never will be. All the crop he has ever grown was a crop of lumber, and it took him forty years to do it. He has done gathered his crop and got the money for it. It is said that Mr. Davidson wants his cut over pine lands exempted from taxation for forty years, or until such time until his pine trees can grow again. If this were done, then we boys that are growing cotton, corn and oats would have to pay the taxes every year out of our crops that is now paid by Mr. Davidson on his lands. This may be all right, but I can't see where a man advocating suc han idea could ever expect to get any farmer votes. To sum up, we farmers have had all the lawyer governors we want and we don't know anything about the lumber kings, and therefore we want Ma Ferguson, a farmer, to help us hoe our ro wthrough this veil of tears.

A CORRECTION

In publishing the official ballot for the primary election two weeks ago the Herald got the names of candidates for Justice of Peace transposed and thereby made an error in the position of J. M. Ralston on the ballot.

In the drawing for places on the ballot Mr. Ralston drew first place. As published it indicated he had drawn second place. This is an error and having our attention called to it by Mr. Ralston we gladly make this correction and add that Mr. Ralston drew first place on the ballot instead of second place as shown by the newspaper publication.

BACK HURT BAD

Lady Had Severe Pains in Back and Got Very Weak.

"I think very highly of Cardui for I have had great benefit from its use," says Mrs. Cora Nicholson, of Ware Shoals, S. C.

"I was in bed quite a while. It looked like my strength would not come back, and I suffered with severe pains in my back whenever I would try to get up. Sometimes I would scream out, my back hurt me so bad.

"My husband got me some Cardui and I took two bottles. Very shortly after I began to take it I could notice I felt better. I began to get stronger. My appetite was improving and I could see that I was much better.

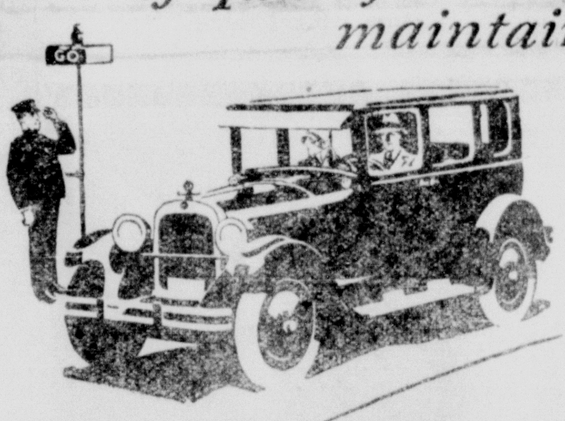

"After I had finished the second bottle I was able to be up and do all my own housework, so of course I think Cardui is fine. It is the best tonic for women that I know anything about, and I am glad to recommend it. Not long ago I told a lady friend of mine about it, and it did her as much good as it has done for me."

TWO DANCES AT WAYSIDE INN THIS WEEK

The dance at Wayside Inn last Friday night was one of the best since the opening. J. D. Lewis and his orchestra furnished music for the dance. Mr. Lewis now has one of the best orchestras in Central Texas.

Mr. Cammer, manager of the Wayside Inn announced yesterday that he had installed six electric fans for the comfort of the dancers. There are two dances on the program this week. On Thursday the Aggieland Five from A. & M. college will play and on Saturday night J. D. Lewis and his orchestra will furnish the music. It is only a five minute drive from town, so drive out and enjoy yourself.

Mrs. Guy Slocomb and members of her Sunday school class motored to the Christian Encampment in Belton Sunday. Clyde Yarbrough, Mike Wiley and Nora Adams went Mrs. with Mrs. Slocomb and other members of the class attended.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

Well-known druggists say everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

BIG TIRE REDUCTION

In this issue will be found an advertisement of the Hubert Hefley Motor Company advertising a reduction in the price of automobile tires. The reduction is very substantial and it will be of interest to read the comparison in prices.

EFFECT OF BEAUTIFICATION

The "city beautiful" and "town beautiful" movement is too often referred to as a merely aesthetic thing, one which pleases the eye and delights imaginatve persons, but which can not be expected to have any deep effect on the ordinary run of people.

When a community or neighborhood improves its physical appearance, there should also be some effect on the character of the people.

If you pick a boy out of the street, all dirty and more or less ragged, he does not feel that he is anyone. He has a kind of sentiment of self depreciation, and as he looks like a tramp and a vagrant, he is very apt to act like one. But if you can persuade that boy to clean up, and provide himself with decent looking clothes, if his family can't do it for him, he comes to think that he may amount to something after all, and he is or should be incited to act in a way suitable to a respectable person.

So in the case of a neighborhood or a city. If you could take a run down looking town, all disorderly and decadent, and within a few years persuade the people to clean up, paint up, improve their grounds and set out shrubs and trees and flowers, you would accomplish something more than a physical transformation. The people would feel a new respect for their community. They would be impressed with the idea, and that impression would come back from visitors, that they had a place of superior culture and refinement.

It would seem as if that feeling hould be reflected in higher standards all along the line. The people would be convinced that a town that had acquired this improved standing in its schools, better churches and social activities, more orderly conduct, etc. It seems probable that such a change would affect the whole development of such a community, and led it to ascend to new levels of civic accomplishment.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATIONS

It is not an easy thing to deal with the modern child. The kid world, to speak somewhat colloquially, has become very independent in these days, and it has a way of making its own decisions, often to its own hurt. Hence there needs to be a certain amount of co-operation from the homes. They have certain ideas that they are trying to put into the child mind, but if the children get the idea that their parents are not much interested in those aims, and are not supporting them, then the children are apt to develop an attitude of resistence.

The majority of parents can not get the best educational results for their children, unless they exert a certain amount of home pressure on their children tending to support the things the schools are trying to do. In order to co-operate effectively along such lines, they need more knowledge of modern school methods and aims than they have now.

And at the same time, teachers can learn a good deal from the practical viewpoint and experience of parents.

To bring about a closer harmony and co-operation in educational and home training, the parent-teacher associations which have been active in many communities, have been an influential force. Wherever such organizations are formed and are active and succeed in enlisting a good amount of interest, both school work and home training should gain advantageous results, and much be done to produce a finer type of young people.

A NEW and BETTER TEXACO GASOLINE

WHAT IT DOES

IT GIVES A QUICK START

—because of its low boiling point and high percentage of volatile fractions. It vaporizes quickly in a cold engine.

It Gives More Miles Per Gallon

—because it works best on a leaner mixture—more air; less gas. This insures fuel economy that shows itself in miles per gallon.

It Gives Quick Pick-up

—because of its higher volatility and low end point. It forms a dry gas in the manifold which feeds evenly to the cylinders and avoids flooding.

It Gives Relief From Engine Knock

—because it has anti-knock qualities and smooth combustion characteristics tempered to engine needs.

IT GIVES BETTER LUBRICATION

Because it leaves no heavy ends. The new Texaco Gasoline forms a dry gas which burns completely. It does not flood the cylinders, and this means less crankcase dilution—hence better lubrication.

Stop at the next Texaco pump and fill your tank and notice the difference in the performance of your car.
